Mary Edith Tidwell Rorex

Wife, mom, sister, neighbor, and friend are words we use to describe the selfless woman we knew who blessed this Earth for 76 years. She was intentional with her time, and genuine in her faith teaching all that knew her the love of Jesus. She spent many years teaching other about Jesus at CenterPoint Baptist church. She considered the church as her extended family throughout the years. Whether she taught you through her quilts, her flowers or her soup you knew love and joy went into her actions towards you. Her husband, children, grandchildren, great grandchildren siblings and friends now can continue her legacy of faith. Her life on this Earth was a true gift and we are so thankful for the blessing she was.

She is survived by her Husband - Jimmy Rorex; Four Daughters: Lisa (Todd) Fountain, Patricia Miller, Mary Harden, Debra (Joey) Guffey; 14 grandchildren: Nick Fountain Zach Fountain, Tate Fountain, Bryon (Katie) Miller, Patric (Lena) Miller, Jarod Miller, Nicolis Miller, Megan Harden, Bailey Harden, Millie Harden, Ashley Guffey, Ryeann Guffey, Joseph Guffey and Jaysen Guffey; 3 great grandchildren: Alley Miller, Mark Miller and Raelynn Fountain; 2 Sisters, Bettye Pockrus and Pat (David) Thompson; 4 Brothers, Ray (Gwen) Tidwell, Raymond (Louise) Tidwell, Johnny (Bobbie) Tidwell and June (Mary) Tidwell And many nieces and nephews.

“ My mom did not meet a stranger and loved everyone. She taught me how to love others and always help others in need. She loved to plant flowers and last Spring me and her made the prettiest flowers at the nursing home. She was my best friend, my advisor and now my guardian angel. Love you mom! I will see you soon for now I will see you in my dreams.
