“ It's been 2 yrs brother but it still feels like yesterday we all have missed you so much and your kids both of them have had to grow up so fast but they are making it but they miss you and needed you here ! I'm slowly getting past my anger toward you but I'll never completely understand why you left this way ! Heaven is so smart she is going to do great in life she's beautiful smart and she got the best of you and Mandy she struggles still but you would be proud !!! but she looks so much like you it's sometimes hard for me to be around her but I love her we all do and we're always here for her ! I don't have any recent pics of her yet but I'll get some next time I see her and post them... Drake is good he misses you so much and at times worries me cause he gets down on his self when he shouldn't , but he continues on he's working at Toyota now with gage and Greg , I wonder now if things could of been different for you if you had of went to work there guess I'll always wonder ... Drake and Emily have a beautiful boy now just turned 1 I know you would of had a ball with him he's so chunky and so smart already .. It just hurts us all to know he missed out on the pawpaw in you he is precious he loves momma she gets him laughing and cackling out like she does with all the babies so sorry you can't be here now you would be very proud ! We all just have these empty holes now within us that can never be filled ... I miss you brother so much , and I'm so sorry I never got to say goodbye , I just couldn't but I carry you with me every where I go and always will . I hope you found your peace and the rest of the family love you and I'll be seeing you soon if only in my dreams !
