“ I miss you. I pick up the phone to call you and I can't. I drive by your apartment and I hope your light is on. The part that hurts the most is I have to keep going. I can't stop because life doesn't stop. Work doesn't stop and time won't sit still for one second to let me sit down and figure out how your not here anymore. If I had one more second to spend with you I would hold on and not let you go. You were never disabled. In fact you were enabled. You used your eyes to see the good in all of this world and the people that walked on and in it. The only thing you were blind to was the bad in this world. You didn't see it. You were better than pity. You were better than struggle. You showed us that "I can't" was not a phrase you would ever use. I knew where you would be going and I know where you are. God bless you for showing me love. God bless you for showing me peace. God bless you for being you. Nanny I love you. Love occurs all of the sudden of a long period of time. For thirty years you proved that to me. All I know to do is thank God for the time we had with you and hope that I can find favor in His eyes to let me in the same kingdom your in now. I love you and I will never stop.

You always treated me like family even before Lee and I was married, the unconditional love you showed me will always be deep in my heart and soul. I could talk to you about anything without judgement. I enjoyed our visits on the swing and our long conversations about life and family. I promise you I will always take care of Lee and your great grandchildren who adored you and love you so much.. I am sure the God has so many plans for you to do his work in heaven and I know you are at peace. One of my favorite friends was Barbara Jean Carter. I met her when I was 13 years old. She and Billy were so sweet to me. I loved just being with her. She was so kind and loving to me. I visited her often especially after I married. We lived just across the street from her, there in Allensville. She gave me so much wanted advice for my marriage and my family. I am thankful to her for that. She always looked her best all the time, and was so friendly to everyone. She was blind but that didn't hender her much. She made the best of the life God gave her. Her faith was strong, especially after joining The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. She taught her children well. You can tell that by the way they grew up and the lives they live now. I hated when she moved off to Alabama, because I knew I would miss her so much. I know she was welcomed by so many of her family and friends on the other side of the veil. I look forward to meeting her again, if only I can live half as good of a life as she did. God bless you my sister in the gospel and very good friend. Prayers that God will also bless all the members of your family here on earth.

Sincerely,

NINA MAE ABNEY CUMBEE

“ Sweetie, You know you have always had a special place in my Heart, And a bond and love that will last a lifetime, You have always been a Fantastic Mother and Best Friend to your Daughters and accepted me into the family and treated me as a son. We have shared a lot of memories and laughter together over the years, with never a ill word spoken, I will be looking to the Heavens to try and catch a glimmer of you and a Heavenly sign that you are Well and Happy. I know you will always be watching your Daughters Rena' and Tammie and whispering sweet unconditional love and encouragement in there ears to give them guidance and direction for all of Eternity , because that is the type of Mother and Women you were. You will be serving the Lord and continuing the work that you started with your Earthly Body. Now with no obstacles and limits to hold you back, Our Heavenly Father has a Angel that has no boundary's. I will still be asking for advice that pertains to your Daughters from time to time because as you know they can be a hand full. As for now as Our Heavenly Father has brought you to his Kingdom to continue you Heavenly works for he has seen your Love and Faith in serving Him while on Earth. You have made you journey and created love,happiness and memories to all of those you came into contact with. So in time we will all be reunited, standing hand and hand as we celebrate being reunited in Heavenly Paradise with our Lord and Savior. I Love you Sweetie and will miss you greatly, Thanks for Your Love Sweetie.

“ Sweetie, you know you have always been special in my heart and that i have always loved you. You will be greatly missed because you were always a Special lady who was always a big part of the family, you have always been a Fantastic Mother and Best Friend to your daughters showing them constant love and compassion at every step they took.. And a mother in-law that accepted me into the family and treated me like a son. We will still talk, and i will probably need some more advice when it comes to your daughters. Heaven has opened its gates and required a special angel in you. Your life will forever be glorified and greater as you are in Heaven doing the Lords work, With a body that has no limits or restrictions in the Kingdom of God. We will still be looking to the Heavens as time goes by to get a glimmer of you. Our thoughts and memories will be of you till we can meet again. I know you will still be watching us all, especially your girls. So keep in touch with them from Heaven and always protect and love them in ways only you can do. You will always be in Our Heart, So memories of you will never fade. Love You Sweetie !
