“ Mr Ed was my Granddaughter Claire's best neighbor and friend. He taught her to play the harmonica and entertained her with M&Ms and Hershey kisses. Oh and grape juice to quench her thirst. She spent many hours with Mrs Pat and Mr Ed and they treated her just like their granddaughter. We have all been blessed by this sweet Christian couple and we all will miss Ed so very much. May he rest in peace and good health now with the angels on high. God Bless you Mrs Pat and all your family.

Sincerely,

“ My sincere prayers for Pat, Shirley, Connie, Beverly, and the rest of Chick's family.

A real saint of God has passed from this life of trial & tribulation to the eternal life of peace & joy. His faith is finished / complete. Now he is well & whole. Thank God for a life well lived.

I have known this family for the better part of the last 52 years, and they have been not only good friends, but dear Christian brothers & sisters.

Chick set the example of what a real Christian man should be. I admired & respected him, and learned from him.

He will certainly be remembered with honor & fondness. And we celebrate his homegoing.

May God bless all the family with peace & comfort & the reminder that we will see Chick again soon in the sweet by & by.

Love & prayers to all of you!

“ So sorry to hear of Mr. Warren's passing. I will never forget his kindness to us when we lived in Scottsboro, and especially his taking David to the RA function when his dad was unable to do it.

Your whole family was greatly loved by my children and by me.

Prayers for all of you.
