“ My memories of Aunt Betty are pretty extensive. Each and every summer, about a day or so, after school was out, my Dad would bring us three kids and my Mom, to Hollywood, Alabama, where we got to spend the entire summer with my grandparents, and of course, Betty. Dad would return home to work, and come back to get us about a week before school started. I always remembered Betty as being a lot of fun, and even tho` we knew she was "retarded", as we referred to that condition back then, she always seemed very normal to us. We were taught to respect her, and obey her if she told us to do something! Just being around her was just like being around anyone else, and she seemed to love, absolutely everyone who visited my grandparent`s home. I`m sure my sister, as well as myself, is very happy to have lived long enough to know Betty finally made it, "home" to meet her Lord and Savior, Jesus. She always acknowledged Him, and that when asked, she let you know that He was, indeed, in her heart. We used to walk with her, and Grandad, to the little Fairfield Church! Now that is a great memory. Praise the Lord!!!

“ My aunt Betty was my father`s youngest sister. I remember fondly the Sundays Dad would bring her to the house. My mother always cooked fried chicken on Sundays. Betty loved to help in the kitchen. I Will always remember how it made her smile. I will also remember how she always called all seven of of us Coulson kids "Bob`s Baby. Peaceful and joyous rest.
