“ Aunt Betty Jo was beautiful in her soul and outside for all to see. When i was little, she sometimes wore a lilac nail polish and my sister and i adored that color and we still talk about that. She smelled good and her hair was a halo. Her daughters have been as sweet and beautiful and that legacy of goodness and beauty has continued through to all of her grandchildren and will grow and grow, no doubt, as a beautiful legacy. Heaven may be more beautiful but she will be missed on earth. Peace to Connie and Debbie as they learn to go without her physical presence. I loved her.
