“ Mrs. Billie was a very caring wife and mother. I enjoyed Sunday afternoons at her house and going to church with her at Aspen Methodist Church. It is sad this completes the family circle in Heaven. God bless her grandchildren and other loved ones left behind. (sherry, my number is 231-920-4167)

“ My memory of Billie was her love for the Lord and to honor him, she taught Sunday School, Bible Study and sang for the Lord. She, along with her husband W.C., her friends, Bob Dulaney, Nora Hooper, and piano player, Virginia Miller traveled to many places to spread the Lord's words with songs of praise. The last years of her life was not what we had hoped for, but she always had a smile on her face, when visiting her. We don't grieve for Billie, because she is singing with her family and the Angels. God speed My Dear Friend!!
