“ Your mother was the dearest person. I'll certainly remember her as a good cook and the fellowship dinners at church. I recall Clarence Potter getting a piece of her chocolate cake first thing before he got in line for the food; he didn't want to miss out. She also took Michael and me in while the power was out at our apartment complex. She would dote over Aaron as if he was her own grandchild. We loved her. We love you and will cherish the many memories we have while we lived in Scottsboro. God bless you during this time. Patti Rae and Michael Bryant

“ One of the sweetest ladies who I respected and who guided my son Scott at the Methodist church. She and Creed raised a wonderful daughter who I love and cherish that friendship for many years. My condolences to both the boys and all the family and wish distance permits me from being there with all. May Miss Bobbie rest in peace.
