“ Every time Joey and I went fishing we talked. One evening, I asked him, "If you could accomplish one thing in life, what would that be?" He said without hesitation, "To take care of my family." Joey talked about his family every day. He said, "I made a promise to Daddy to take care of Momma and I am going to do just that."

On another day, Joey and I had a long talk on the phone after my father passed away. I recalled a time when I asked my Dad, "What do you want everyone to remember about you?" He said, "I want people to be able to say, He was a friend to all." Joey said, "That's what I want people to say about me." I told Joey, "I don't know of anyone in Scottsboro that doesn't know you. Every where we go, someone has to say, 'Hi.' and ask Joey how he is doing. Joey was a friend to all. He loved to make children smile. He would win a stuffed animal from the claw machine at Wal-mart and give it away to a child.

He was funny and fun to hang out with. He thought he had to feed everyone who hung out with him. I use to tell him, "You are a legend in your own time. You are friendly to everyone you meet. You are a pretty good guy."

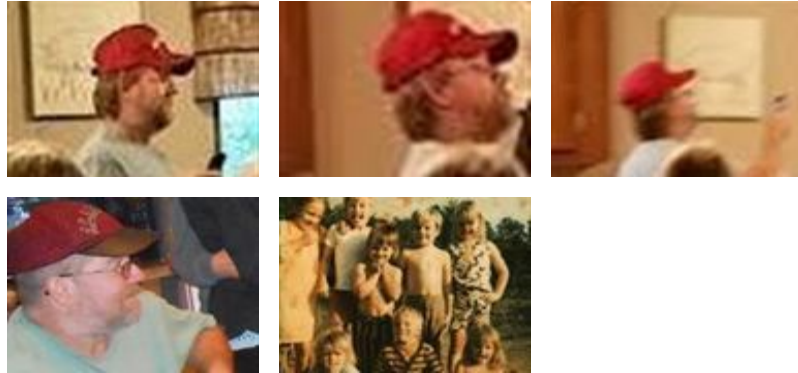

Every day we feed the ducks and squirrels at Jackson County Park before we went fishing. One time we forgot to get food for the ducks and every time we cast our line, they would fly to our bobbers. We had to stop fishing and drive to the store to buy food for the ducks, so they would leave us alone. That is the kind of person Joey was, a sweet, kind, thoughtful person who loved everyone and everyone loved him. He was a Friend to All! Most importantly, he was my Best Friend!
