“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Carolyn was a kind and loving lady. She was our " angel". Late one night my husband, David, was in the hospital where Carolyn worked. He always told me that he would never fly in a helicopter or an airplane. Well, he needed to be medflighted from Scottsboro to Huntsville Hospital. He was determined that he wasn't going until Carolyn told him that she would be going with him to take care of him. That made all the difference in the world! He trusted her and went willingly. I don't think he would ever have gotten on that helicopter without Carolyn's assurance that everything was going to be alright. Prayers and love sent to comfort all who knew and loved Carolyn.

“ We spent many nights in the ER together with me learning the ropes and Carolyn guiding the way. We had some funny times mixed in there with lots of stories to tell and share. After my accident and i was finally moved out of ICU at Erlanger, there was Carolyn with nail polish because i always had painted nails. She started to paint and a nurse came in and told her she could not do that because they would not be able to get a pulse ox through the polish. She laughed and said "yes you can "and continued to paint. I would not let them remove the black nail polish with glitter she chose for me! I would hold my fingers up and look at them and laugh my head off! Carolyn, I hope you are laughing up there and save me a seat! We have stories to tell!
