“ Charles was a great man. Charles was not only my brother but a true friend. You never knew what lie would come out of his mouth! Those who knew him knows I'm telling the truth. lol. He always would call and tell me that he was in jail and needed to come get him. Charles always knew how to live life to the fullest and never seemed to get down. Life has not always been easy, but he always made life look easy. God truly does take the best. I love you Charles. You will be greatly missed.
