“ *Dear Hoyt and family,
Our family is praying for all of you and especially our precious friend Hoyt. Miss Charlotte was such a Blessing to me in so many ways. She always looked like perfection in her dress and make-up, but oh her sweet smile!! I loved so much her love for Alabama and she always was a great lady! I loved her mischievous smile at our Dirty Santa parties at Miss Judy's and will always miss her on this special occasion, and even more at church. What a great testimony she lived and my sweet Hoyt, oh what a great love and devotion I watched you have for her always! She was so Blessed to be so loved! Truly she is with our Blessed Savior, I hope my Mother has got to meet her already, I saw so much of my own mother in her. I will go to sleep singing tonight the song by Mercy Me, I Can Only Imagine, as I did for my mother who was wheelchair bound for so long too for I know she must have danced for her Lord with joy and fell to her feet in honor of her Savior and Lord. God comfort and Bless you. All our love!
