“ Christine was a neighbor of ours on Pine Ridge Rd. She always had time for me, a very shy, awkward teenager. I'll remember her always. She made a big impression on my life. She was a very special person.

“ Christine was one of a kind. Someone said she was peppy and that and loved her. Rest in peace sweet friend. Joan Cisco

“ It is hard to wrap my mind around knowing Christine's smile and infectious laugh are now sweet memories. I know you will have "that conversation" with Eve before I get there. Rest in peace, dear friend~

“ My first memory of Christine was when we were children at my grandmother Payne's and Uncle Wilbur and Aunt Gwen's. I remember how sweet she was then. Later on in my life we reconnected. How blessed I am to have know her. She touched so many lives and was such a influence to so many. Not to mention how funny she was. God broke the mold. RIP Sweet Girl RIP.
