“ Clark was truly a great guy. He had such a fascinating way of looking at and solving problems, but I will remember him as someone who taught me about maintaining honesty and integrity in both my professional and personal life. Most of my time with Clark was in a professional setting but I could always see the dedication, love, and longing he had for his family and it left a deep and lasting impression on me. I wish Clark’s family love and moments of peace and comfort during this tragic time. Vaya con Dios my friend.

“ I loved Clark. He was my brother in law at one time. He was always a nice, inviting, neutral and selfless person. I never knew him to express a negativite report on anyone. Im keeping his family in my thoughts as they must need all the goodness in the world to shine on them right now. We've lost a good man and he will be missed.
