“ Codi,
You were and are the greatest influence on my life. We met your freshman year in high school and became inseparable. You were never afraid to call me out on my wrong doings and always there when I needed you. I hope you know how much I love you and how much I loved us aggravating everyone together. From coffee and movies, dancing in Walmart, and random late night drives we were always to know what the other needed without words. You truly were my soul's bestfriend and it feels like half of me is missing. "Lay your weary head to rest and don't you cry no more"
