“ Hi, was thinking about you today and the time you woke me up at 3 am on the phone. You were just chatting away about where you were and what you were doing and OMG what type of Limo you were riding around in. We were both laughing and caring on that night... I miss you.

“ Dan, I have known you for a long time. There are so many memories, and I can't wrap my head around all this. They laid you to rest today, and I know you are at peace. I will look for some pictures we took now only in Guam but in Europe, and come back and write some more. For now, Pam, Peggy, and Bob, I wish you peace knowing your brother is watching over you.
