“ So sad to hear about Bro.David. He was a happy person with good things to say about everyone. He was always in a good mood and had a smile on his face when he walked through the door. I am sure he has a smile on his face today because he has made it home! May God comfort your heart Sis.Iris, Kevin, & Julie. We love you! Chris and Deborah Avans Peek

“ To Mr. Gilliam family. My name is Diane Cowan from Patterson Place Apt. Mr Gilliam was a Godly man. When he would spray my apt we talked about the Lord and How good He was. When I got the news yesterday i was floored. I will miss his warm smile and his Godly ways. Thank you for allowing him to serve us. I will keep the family in prayer.

“ Every time I saw Bro. David, he would hug me and say you are a good woman, I cried yesterday and thought who will tell me that, now. I always loved him and got to know Kevin very much while he was with us and Iris her whole life. Such a loss and praying.

“ David was one of the nicest people I've ever met. We've been a customer of David's Pest Control for about 15 or 20 years. He always had a smile on his face and enjoyed chatting about our family, his family, and his faith. He was sweet to our boys, who called him "the spider man" when they were little (we had more trouble with spiders in the house than bugs.) We lost our son, Alan, in 2004 when he was 15. I remember David got tears in his eyes when he found out. It meant a lot to me that he cared so deeply and he often mentioned Alan to me and said he was praying for us. I remember the last time we talked a few months ago he told me, "I loved that little boy." I'm really going to miss David. Your family will be in my prayers.

“ I have GREAT memories of this man. One is he sit and studied his bible a whole lot back in the day I got to be around them.
Another memory is how he has help me so many times spiritually.
He was an encourager.
Love you Sister Iris , Julie and Kevin..
