“ I first met David in the library at Florida Baptist Theological College in 1993. As a young lady and very new to the College atmosphere I was clueless about a lot of things. David asked me if I was there to get my MRS degree. Not knowing what that was, I very seriously began explaining that I was the full time secretary to the Librarian, not there to take classes. Of course he got a good laugh out of that, and thus our friendship began as well as his goal (with Alan Crawford and Timmy Hall) to find me a husband. I'm happy to say that just a few weeks ago, I gained my MRS degree. I know David would be proud. He was a sweet man with a sweet fun-loving spirit. I always smile when I think of him.

“ David was, and always will be, a dear and special friend to our family. We have tremendously wonderful memories from our time at The Baptist College of Florida, as well as after we all moved to Pisgah, Alabama. We will always love David and he will continue to hold a huge place in all of our hearts.

“ David and I became like brothers during the time we were at the Florida Baptist Theological College together in the early 90's. Sad to say we drifted away after I moved to Huntsville to pastor Oak Park. he will always be one of the dearest and best friends to me. I will cherrish my memories of David and all we did together. And just for him, I say...GoVols!
