“ Aunt Earlene & I were on the telephone one day and I ask her how she was feeling. Her reply was "well I hurt real bad but I feel real good". We both laughed. It was a truly memorable moment for me. She was a shining light for all her family & friends. This statement meant to me that she was in constant pain yet she was so happy. God truly worked in her. She loved her family so much. Lloyd was her shining light. I know God will comfort him and the entire family. I love you all.
