“ So sorry yet so happy for Edna! She has received her eternal reward. Edna will be greatly missed. She was such a special lady, always a smile, a quick laugh, a kind word, never a complaint or negative word. I'll miss her and seeing her from time to time. The years we spent working together in benevolent ministries was a highlight and distinct pleasure. Edna was eager to help our clients with a word of encouragement or a prayer; always able and willing to share a testimony and sometimes a needed jolt of reality but always with love and a hope of healing to improve someone's day. What a blessing she was and her memory will continue to be!

“ I have known Sister Pace seems like all my life. We went to church together till I was grown. She was an awesome cook and a good woman of God.. She had her own opinion about certain views and had no problem letting you know how she felt. We loved and respected her,. she will be missed. Rest in the arms of God. Love Joe and Mary Gomez.
