“ Those who faithfully bear the cross in this life will wear the crown in the life to come. Mrs. Downey is now with her Lord and I can't help but think she and Hank and my Mama and Daddy are all yucking it up and laughing about the good old days. I think of her more often than she would believe and will miss seeing her this side of heaven. Blessings to all the Downeys. May your sweet memories carry you through the difficult days ahead and may God's loving arms sustain you through your grief. Love to you, Mary Anne & Jim!

“ Jim, Mary Anne, Jim Jr., Michele, Neel, Mollie, and children -- Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you all as you go through the burial of Mrs. Downey. She was a wonderful person, a strong presence, we always enjoyed visiting with her when she was in Clemmons. We will miss her on our December beach trips. May you feel God's presence in your lives during this time, His loving arms enfolding you and uplifting you. Mrs. Downey is in a much better place than we are. We love you all. “ Aunt Eula Gene was a wonderful woman and I will miss her greatly. I had some wonderful, memorable times with her and Uncle Hank, Jim, David, and Steve. My heart is with you all.

Eula Gene, I still have the rock you gave me that you weren't supposed to pick up! I love you.

“ I am sorry to hear of Eula Gene's death. Her husband, "Hank," was my mother's first cousin. I visited in their home on a few occasions and always enjoyed their company. My heartfelt sympathy goes to the family.
