

Florence Taylor

January 7, 1921 - June 29, 2012

Florence Evelyn Taylor passed away Friday, June 29, 2012 at Highland Nursing Home in Scottsboro Al after a prolonged illness. She was born in Bridgeport Township, Lawrence County Ill on January 7, 1921. She was 91 years old.

She is survived by: son, Daniel Taylor and daughter-in-law Laurie Taylor of Athens, Ala.; daughter, Carmen Stover and son-in-law Eugene Stover, of Hixson Tn.; former daughter-in-law, Irene Taylor, of Harvest, Ala.; grandchildren, Leslie Stover of Hixson Tn., and Elizabeth Taylor, of Harvest Ala.; great-granddaughter, Ashlyn Stover, of Hixson Tn.; nephew Jesse Cox of Olney Ill. and niece Ana Dunk of Brighton Michigan .

She was preceded in death by her husband Lloyd "Duke" Taylor; her parents, Jesse and Winona Farlow; and Sisters Leona Cox and Hannah Gray.

Florence played the piano at church prior to her illness that left her unable to play and enjoyed her family visits and flower garden. She and her husband Duke lived on Skyline Mountain near the Letcher and Pleasant Grove communities prior to her illness and subsequent admittance to the nursing home.

Funeral services for Mrs. Taylor will be 2 p.m. Monday, July, 2 2012, at Scottsboro Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Curan Teague officiating. Pallbearers are Leslie Stover, and Church friends from Letcher Church of God. Interment will be at City Cemetery Scottsboro.

Tribute Wall

“ Florence Taylor

October 05, 2023 at 01:26 AM