

Mr. Fred Andrews Thebus

May 18, 1938 - May 24, 2022

Fred Andrews Thebus, age 84, passed away on May 24, 2022. He will be buried on Saturday morning, May 28, 2022 at 9:00 at Cedar Hill Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the Scottsboro Cumberland Presbyterian Church (outside in the Pavilion) from 10:00 until 11:00. A memorial service will be held at the church at 11:00. Pastor Micaiah Tanck will officiate both services.

Mr. Thebus is survived by his daughters, Lisa (Paul) Hawkins, Amy (John) Westmoreland, Mary (Nigel) Davis, Sarah (David Billups) Thebus; grandchildren, Andrews Scott Thebus, Dorothy Elizabeth Westmoreland (John Miller), Steven Armin Thebus, Jesse Allen Hawkins (Megan), Matthew Thomas Dillon, John Patrick Dillon, and James Armin Hawkins; great grandchildren, Koen Karl Thebus; Elizabeth Rosemarie Miller, Heidi Len Hawkins. His surviving sister is Katherine Thebus Betts. He was the proud uncle to a niece, Penny and three nephews, Paul, Don, and Tom. He was preceded in death by his wife, Katharine Kratzer Thebus, his parents, Dorothy Andrews Thebus and Armin P. Thebus, and his brother, Armin P. Thebus, Jr. Mr. Thebus was born in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. Thebus graduated from East High School, and from the Colorado School of Mines. He began work as a metallurgical engineer for Revere Copper and Brass in Newport, Arkansas, and moved with that company to Scottsboro,

Alabama in 1968. He said he was a southerner by choice, and he remained working in Scottsboro for the rest of his career in metallurgy.

Fred Thebus loved his family, his church, a host of friends who became our family in Scottsboro, his retired Revere friends, and most recently, the friends he made while living at Southern Estates. He was cared for and supported by a host of doctors and medical professionals who did all they could to help him navigate his health journey.

Memorials may be made to the Scottsboro Cumberland Presbyterian Church.
