

Mr. Garry Russell Privett

September 2, 1958 - April 6, 2026

Mr. Garry Russell Privett, age 67 of Scottsboro, Alabama passed away Monday, April 6, 2026 at Huntsville Hospital.

Garry exemplified the true spirit of generosity despite facing personal limitations. His commitment to helping others was evident through his active participation in the Room in the Inn mission in Jackson County. This program, dedicated to providing shelter and support to those in need, benefited greatly from Garry's involvement. His dedication not only helped those in need but also allowed him to forge meaningful friendships within the community. Garry's approach was characterized by a selfless attitude; he contributed as much as he could, often going beyond his means to ensure others received assistance and kindness. His efforts created a ripple effect, inspiring others to participate and foster a sense of community and compassion. Aside from his charitable work, Garry was also a talented musician and songwriter.

A memorial service celebrating Garry's life will be held later.
