“ Dad,

I know you now know the truth of it all, I wish you could share some of that with me to help me thru thus life but I know you can't. I love you I already miss you, I know we didn't get to see each other like we wanted to but I always knew you loved me and wanted me happy and I am happy. I love you, always have no matter the rough times we had. I will always cherish the baseball games and wrestling, and especially the Saturday morning fishing trips to Beech Creek but not before a ham steak breakfast at Rainbow Cabin Cafe. You taught me alot in this life showed me alot of beautiful places and introduced me to some good people. I don't know where I'm going in this life but I will never forget where I've been and what you showed me. I love you dad.

James.
