“ Best Lady I have been blessed enough to have had in my life and even though my family tree says she is my Father's (Sammy Jernagin) oldest sister, in my heart she was more of a Mother and I learned tons of skills from her from how to cook to how to diagnose and work on a car or a person. I know she had forgotten more than I may ever know but one thing I will never forget is her HUGE UNCONDITIONAL EVER FORGIVING NON-JUDGEMENTAL LOVE OF HER FAMILY AND HER HOPE TO HELP US EACH BETTER OURSELVES TO REACH OUR POTENTIAL SHE KNEW WE WERE EACH CAPABLE OF AND HER ABILITY TO PICK US UP OUT OF THE LOWEST POINTS IN OUR LIVES AND GIVE US HOPE AND SELF CONFIDENCE AND SELF WORTH AND MOTIVATION TO MAKE HER PROUD AND TO SHOW HER THAT HER EFFORTS WERE NOT IN VAIN and her love of God!

“ Mrs. Gracie is such a beautiful woman. She touched mine and family's life and became Nana to my daughter Bella. I am so truly sorry to hear that we lost her physically, but I know she is with God and the rest of her family in Heaven.
