“ Aunt Inice was my only connection with her older brother, my grandfather, Boudary Vance, who died many years before I was born. When I began working on my family tree I often wished that I could talk to Aunt Inice about her family. She was a wonderful, caring woman who loved helping others. She and Ernest had a wonderful relationship and I miss them both.

“ Inice was truly a great lady. I remember going to her home when I was a little girl and reading in the front room. My dad (Cowan Freeman) and Ernest where 1st cousins who enjoyed each others company tremendously, and my Mom (Eula Freeman) always looked forward to being with Inice at the Stovall reunions. God be with her family at this time of grief.
