June 25, 1955 - February 2, 2022

He was a 1973 graduate of Scottsboro High School. He loved a good story and kept his many friends entertained. His greatest joy came from working outside and getting his hands in the dirt. He made even the dullest day an adventure.

He is survived by his children, James Alvin Butler III "Trey" (Shanna) and Maggie Butler Akridge (Andrew); granddaughters, Ophelia Butler, Lola Akridge, Mary Katherine Akridge, and Andie Akridge; brothers, Steve Butler (Lisa) and Charles Butler (Jamie); sisters, Belinda Butler and Tracy Wallingsford (Tony); 3 nieces and 3 nephews; a host of friends; and a special friend, who was like a son, Andrew Parvin.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Little Free Library <https://littlefreelibrary.org/donate/> in his memory to share his love of books with others.

“ The Simmons family would like to give our condolences to the family of Mr. Al Butler, I know we all have SO many memories with The Legend Brotha AL, one really makes me laugh. My family and I were living on Humes Ave. in 5 Points where AL visited frequently. One Tuesday morning 6am remind you there was a knock on our front door, not an ordinary knock but that KNOCK lol scared the shit out of my wife and I, opened front door to find AL in panic mode, Hawaiian shirt on Straw hat etc.... tells me he needs my help that his truck would not start at the Exxon station corner of Oakwood and Andrew Jackson, oh yeah as he goes on to tell me his Birthday had been the night before.....so i drive him back up to Exxon a good mile or so from house, obviously he had walked to my house lol so when we pull up to gas station SOB gets out of my truck jumps in his, turns key over truck starts drives away and doesnt even bother to wave, thumbs up, peace sign, thank you, F you or anything just drives off into the sunrise!!!! RIP Brotha AL love you dearly my friend!!!! Classic AL story

GOOD AS GOLD..... Loved his stories!!!
