

Mr. James "David" Harbin

January 6, 1940 - April 6, 2022

Mr. James "David" Harbin passed away on Wednesday, April 6, 2022 at Huntsville Hospital with his wife, Barbara, by his side. Mr. Harbin was a longtime resident of Paint Rock Valley. On this day, we remember a Godly man, an amazing husband, father, PaPa (Poppa), brother, and uncle. A man who always put others before himself, especially those he held dear. A man who was second to none to those who loved him.

A graveside service will be held on Sunday, April 10, 2022 at 2:00 p.m. at Flanagan Cemetery.

Mr. Harbin is survived by his daughter, Tresa Harbin; his son, Patrick (Sandra) Harbin; daughter, Melanie Harbin; grandchildren, Josh (Kristin) Harbin, Anna Harbin, Nick Thomas, and Katie Thomas; great-grandchildren, Hunter Harbin, Mason Harbin, and Sawyer Harbin; sisters, Erma Askew and Annie Mae (David) Jones; brother, Edward (Cherry) Harbin; and several nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his father, Daniel Elic Harbin; mother, Nellie Houk Harbin; and brothers, Eugene, Kenneth, and Bill Harbin.

Arrangements Entrusted to Scottsboro Funeral Home

“ Had the pleasure of David building our log home and garage that we enjoy so much. We asked David to go to the Smokies with us when we were building our home to buy logs. He told us he'd never saw such beautiful mountains and we will never forget the excitement he expressed seeing how big and beautiful the Smokie Mountains were. David was a true craftsman and builder, he will be missed.
