He adored his wife and family. Leaving this life, we all knew he loved us very much and would often be heard to say, "I love My Ruby Faye - And I love my Family. God sure blessed me with a wonderful wife. I sure do love her. Every friend I have ever had was because of her. I don't think I've ever met a soul that didn't love Ruby Faye. She raised me a beautiful family. I thank God for my family."

No one left his presence without hearing - I love you, Be careful.

After a while, "I love you" morphed into "Lubbit" (Love it!). He was so easy to love. He sang to his grandchildren and taught them things like how to work a computer, play chess, and nap.

One of his most prized accomplishments was having read The Bible, multiple times, cover to cover. He studied for decades with an extensive library on biblical reference books and Bible studies. He loved Jesus. He wanted nothing more than to have his loved ones become Christians. He was passionate and quick to share how he loved the Lord at every opportunity. He was a member and Sunday School Teacher at Calvary Baptist Church.
