“ I will always hold Ken dear in my heart. As my youngest uncle, he was always the fun one. He was always going on adventures on his motorcycle or telling me about a concert he went to. He had a ready smile and a mischievous sense of humor. Seventeen years ago he made the 11 hour drive to Virginia to come to my wedding. He said “so that I would have family on my side of the aisle”. I loved him. He will be missed.
