“ J. W. and I were the two last members of the Paint Rock Valley High School class of 1955, after the death of my first cousin, Evelyn Gifford Sisk. I didn't know J. W. was sick! J. W. was always pleasant; I loved being around him! At our high school reunions, I always had our picture made with J. W. beside me because Shirley wasn't there, and I was a widow. Other members were with their spouses. He was a fine man! Jean Humphrey Arndt
