“ Jamie was a lady . . . she was smart, stylish, pretty, nice; but always a lady. She's left such a void, and her TVA family is just crushed...that's how big of an impact she made.

As Mercy Me sang, she is now dancing before her Creator in her Forever Home, thrilled to be healed, waiting to greet her loved ones. But until that happens, please take comfort - loved ones - in knowing she made a positive, indelible mark in this world.

“ *First of all, let me say I am so very sorry for your loss. I was blessed to have met Jamie during our chemotherapy treatments at Grandview Cancer Center. In our short visit, I found out her best friend from college graduated with my son from Plainview High School. What a small world it is. We exchanged a few facebook messages, and I was so sorry to learn that the chemo had not worked for Jamie. In that brief meeting, I could tell she was a wonderful lady who LOVED her husband and children immensely.
She was so happy that day when she told me about her family. May God hold all of you close, and give you the peace and comfort that comes only from HIM, God bless each of you is my prayer.*

“ Jamie was such a wonderful person. She was one of my favorite people I've ever met. She was so sweet and loved Ernie and her kids so much. We worked together straight out of college. I can't imagine a kinder person. We essentially grew up together professionally as we both started around the same time. I learned so much from Jamie. We were the best of friends for over 20 years. I was blessed to have known her and been her friend for as long as I was.

“ Jamie was such a nice, friendly, and capable person. I was fortunate to have gotten to know her over the past 6 years at TVA. She was well respected and very knowledgeable. I love to talk about Alabama football with her and know that she was one of The Tide’s biggest fans. We prayed for her and her family through her battle, and were so sad to hear that her struggle ended this week. She will be missed by so many.

“ My deepest, heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Jamie. She was a beautiful lady inside and out, and she was smart, stylish, friendly . . . a real class act. She has left a void both at TVA and in her social realm. I rejoice that she is now completely healed, but am painfully aware of the grief those left behind are feeling. I am praying for the hearts of the grieving.
