

Mr. Jeff Wyatt McCuistion

January 19, 1968 - February 10, 2022

Jeff McCuistion was born in Rockford, Illinois to Ford P. McCuistion, Jr and Virginia “Jenny” McCuistion. Jeff was a long-time resident of Dutton, Alabama. He enjoyed fishing when he was able and watching SEC football and rooting for the Vols. On weekends you could find Jeff with his friends at Liberty Lanes in Scottsboro. If you knew Jeff, you also knew he liked his western wear. He looked forward to his shopping trips to Huntsville for his boots, hat, shirts, jeans, and that belt with a big buckle.

Jeff was a gentle soul. Not one to be quick to anger he was quick with a smile. Jeff didn’t say much but that did not mean he wasn’t thinking. He knew a lot more than he ever let on. Those still waters ran deep. He never asked much of life other than to be close to family and friends. In particular, he loved to watch his nieces and nephews and their kids play and enjoy the property. He enjoyed cookouts, campfires, warm days, and music. Jeff was particularly fond of “Buddy”, the family dog. The two of them spent many hours observing their world on Sand Mountain from the vantage point of the porch. Jeff was satisfied with a simple life. He didn’t seem to want or need more and more. Perhaps there is a lesson to be learned from his all to short life.

Jeff is preceded in death by his father; mother; his sister, Lisa Walker of Rockwood, Tennessee and his brother, Todd McCuistion of Dutton, Alabama. Jeff is survived by his sister, Tina Bowling also of Dutton, Alabama.

“ Tina, I just wanted to let you know how sorry I am for the loss of your brother. I knew and loved your parents and I am pretty sure I have met you before-when you brought your Mom by Complete Care for supplies...Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ There’s just no end to the memories we have! Almost all our lives that are captured in our hearts but not on film. A beautiful person taken by Jesus. Not too soon; right on Gods time! I love you Brother! Deep in my heart. ❤️🙏
