“ My memory of her was watching her bake when I was young I hardly knew anyone that could bake from scratch that would facilitate me as a kid especially when she did gingerbread houses I only wished that I paid enough attention to know how to do it myself She was a good compassionate woman may she R.I.P.

“ I will miss Grandma Jenny so much. I will never forget the summers we spent with her. She made the best biscuits. You could always find her in the kitchen cooking something. I will also remember her love for watermelon and how we ate it all the time. She welcomed everyone in her house without any questions. She gave all the time without any expectations of getting anything back. Grandma I love and miss you do much
