“ Thank you all for your kind words and memories of my dad, he was forsure 1 of a kind. He loved Elvis and i just could only imagine what kind of day it was with them 2 together. I remember my grandfather getting mad because dad would have headphones on singing to the top of his lungs and papa could hear hee haw. Dad would set me in a chair and put my headphones on me when i was little and hand me my microphone islands in the stream or amerincan trilogy was our songs. Memories are something that can never be took i would love to hear any stories or memories yall want to shared. Thank you again for your kind words. I love you daddy rest in peace. Your babygirl

“ So sad to hear of Jerry's passing. Our karaoke bunch from Liberty Restaurant will surely miss Jerry. He was such a sweet guy and he and Proud Mary kept us laughing with their back and forth dueling song choices. They poked fun and chiding each other making us all laugh and forget about our day. He helped make everyone's day a little brighter. Heaven surely gained another angel. I'm sure he is singing with the heavenly host and smiling down on us. Rest in peace , sweet friend. Prayers for the family in their time of loss.
