“ Mr. White was the watch dog of the neighborhood!! Prettiest house on the block. Never missed mowing the grass every two weeks, like clock work. I'll miss seeing him sitting on the porch in his rocking chair, watching the sun go down. He was a good one. We'll miss you Mr. White.

“ I always appreciated Jerry keeping an eye out for me and my dogs across the street. If he was sitting out on the porch you could be sure that he knew what was going on in our neighborhood. He will be greatly missed. Jackie

I truly believe Jerry thought this was the son he never had, but ended up having, loving and supporting him always. He could be ornery, cantankerous, and opinionated, but his love and support for his great nephew, Jacob, and his niece, Lynn was always there for so many years until the end. And let's not forget his wife, Kathy, the blood relative that also supported them in every way possible. They did not limit their generosity. They included, my Mother, Me, and so many others.
