“ To Sara and family, I send my heartfelt condolences and sorrow in your terrible loss of Jimmy. Sara, there are no words that are adequate to ease your grief when you lose your soul mate, I understand so very well. But I know Jimmy was a child of God. I just wanted to let you and your children know that you are all in my prayers

With Love,

“ It just brightens my heart reading all the wonderful comments of praise & love for my family member. I was just a babe in arms when Sara & Jimmy were married so Jimmy was just always there at the McCord family gatherings at our Papa's house, Harvey & Essie McCord. And that has been many, many decades ago! Your all correct that Jimmy was was one of the kindest & gentlest men that ever was.

Yes he is missed & pray that he's in even a nicer place than Paint Rock Valley. PRV just doesn't have the streets of gold.

*We love you Jimmy

“ Prayers to Aunt Sarah, Mike , Johnny and the grandkids! Love you Uncle Jimmy!
I remember Uncle Jimmy riding me and Mike on the wheel of the tractor as a kid! So much fun, but Mom probably wouldn't thought so!
Also, remember him being so good at Rook and beating dad, mom and Me! They all were though and serious players! Great memories!
We love you Uncle Jimmy! I know they all are there greeting you!

“ Mother Teresa once stated that 'Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless.' Our family member, friend and wonderful man, Jimmy, lived and practiced that statement daily and will forever be remembered and loved.
