“ Tom was a dear, dear friend of mine ever since we met in Scottsboro, Alabama in 2001. We were close, mainly because he was such a good man, with compassion and charity toward everyone. I moved to just outside of Chattanooga, Tennessee in 2012, but we stayed in touch, getting together every so often for a ballgame or lunch. I called and spoke with him a few days before he passed, and he felt like he was slowly recovering. But I called several times since, and could never get an answer. I just got in touch with a neighbor of his today, to see if he was ok. She gave me the news.

I'm sad, because I will miss him. But happy for him. Tom had a pure heart, and spent his life in kindness and service to others. He was as honest as the day is long. He loved to tell me of his sons and grands. He was so proud of them. He will receive a great reward in heaven! I love Tom. I will look forward to seeing him again when I get to the other side. May God bless all of the family with peace, and the knowledge that Tom is with God, under his care.

My condolences to you,
