“ John I'm not gonna talk like your not here because I know deep down in my heart you are. You are the most loyal and caring person I've known. I've know you since the 5th grade there wasn't a time you couldn't make me laugh or smile. You always had jokes. Your smile can light up a room. We would talk for hours talking about wrestling, or how shady people could be. You were the one that could cheer me up after a heartbeat. You love and compassion for your family and friends is amazing we couldn't ask for a better friend than you. I know your smiling down on us from heaven and look at me saying to yourself now she makes me cry. I know I've tried to make you cry through laughter. I believe that God needed you more than we did. I love and miss you dearly
