“ What a wonderful person John was. I was in the National Guard with him and worked with him. I loved working with him. He was such a true American. John was a very loving individual and would do anything for you. We had so many good times together. I really did love Big John. He was a great person and one hell of a man. God speed Big John. I want you on my side in the next world. Rayford Latham.

Thank you, Rayford, your comment means a lot to us It's funny, but my dad didn't think he was such a big man. He used to joke that he'd "sic" his employee after people who didn't pay for their tires. I told him he was lot bigger than his employee, all he had to do was raise his voice and people would cough up their wallet. Dad was surprised. "Really?" he asked, "You think I'm bigger than ...?" "Yes, dad, you are. Football players are your size." Ha! I still laugh about that. -Sandy (Waldrop) Gross
