Johnnie was born on June 25, 1951 in Huntsville, Alabama to his proud parents, Norvel and Marjorie Pedigo. Johnnie was a devoted family man who dedicated himself wholeheartedly to the happiness and well-being of his family. He was a loving husband of fifty-two years to Helen Potter Pedigo, a constant pillar of support through thick and thin. Together, they created a warm and nurturing home that radiated with love and laughter.

Professionally, Johnnie achieved remarkable success. He excelled in his chosen career as a grocery store manager, demonstrating an exceptional work ethic and an unwavering commitment to excellence. His dedication earned him the respect and admiration of his colleagues, who regarded him as a mentor and a role model. He is also well remembered as a pivotal part of the Grant, Swaengin, and Scottsboro communities as the proud owner of the Pedigo Junction convenience stores.

His presence lit up every room he entered, and his infectious laughter brought joy to all those around him. His warm smile and kind heart touched the lives of countless individuals.

“ We (my granddaughters Savannah, Ava & me, Sheila) meet Johnnie when he was manager at the Piggly Wiggly in Etowah, Tn. My granddaughter Savannah had the privilege of getting to work for him. He always said he thought of them as his grandchildren too. He never forgot them on their birthdays or holidays either. That was just the loving way he was when he cared about you. We will miss him so very much. We would always text goodnight to each other every night. We will love & miss you always Johnnie. You will always be in our hearts.
