November 15, 1939 - October 14, 2024

Kenneth Charles Griffith, known affectionately as Ken, passed away on October 14, 2024, at the age of 84, in Huntsville, Alabama. Born on November 15, 1939, in Dutton, he dedicated his life to his family and his work as a quality control engineer.

Ken cherished spending time with his loved ones, especially his wife, Joyce Griffith, with whom he shared over 60 wonderful years of marriage. He is survived by two daughters, Tina (Fred) Durham and Robin (Bobby) Sutton, along with his beloved grandsons, Zachary and Zeb Sutton. He also leaves behind his brother Layne (Sue) Griffith, sister Andrea Keller, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Known for his dry wit and intelligence, Ken was a hard worker who could repair anything mechanical and build anything from scratch. He was also an avid fan of all westerns, relishing the stories and adventures they portrayed.

A member of the Southern Baptist faith, Kenneth's legacy will be remembered through the love and kindness he shared with everyone around him. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends.
