“ Stan the Man... The ever present joyful man, dressed to the nines at every cheer competition and the only fella I knew who could rock a pair of argyle pants without looking like a golfer. Stan was a member of the Rah Rah's, a cheer family group that spent special friendship time over the Holidays at Opryland Hotel in Nashville every year. Stan shared his wonderful wife Beth with our group and Ellen as a little kid as well. Though we all lived miles, states and even countries apart, we were always family when together. Stan made our judging time together so much fun and his laugh, that boisterous, vibrant laugh always let everyone know that you were in a safe place, with safe people and a heck of a time would be had. My heart breaks for all of his friends and family, especially Beth, Ellen and Carson. The Rah Rah sister and brotherhood will never be the same but the love and joy we all shared as a special friend group can never have it's light of joy extinguished. Sending thoughts of love, comfort and healing for the days ahead to all who were lucky enough to have Stan in their lives. I will think of that twinkle Stan had in his eyes often and hope those who know that twinkle, find that spark elsewhere in the universe and think of Stan. Love and blessings to you all.

“ Beth and Ellen, I was so shocked to hear of Stan’s passing. I had no idea he was even sick. I’ll always remember him as a precious, sweet, caring , fun- loving person with a brightened smile. No matter how long it had been since I had seen himself, he always had a “ glad to see you” hug. You have my deepest sympathy. God bless you now and in the days ahead. PIP, Stan. Brenda K.
