“ Although we did not see Uncle Lester often, I do remember a visit to Alabama when my son Owen was a toddler. Uncle Lester just picked up Owen and they went for a walk all over the property, they threw rocks in the water (maybe Lester was showing Owen how to skip rocks) and were having a good time. By the time I found them, my littler guy was enjoying his own can of Coke, courtesy of my funny, happy, and caring Uncle.
