“ I was blessed to know Mrs. Lona Faye for a time at Lakeview Baptist Church. I had the privilege to eat with them and fellowship and play music at their home, meet their family, hear their stories, worship together, pray together, cry together. I have many of their songs written in her own hand in my private collection. I will never forget when they would sing, "Just as the sun went down." They would look at each other just at the right time after saying, "Love like this was never known." I will forever remember her. Them. I wish we had those years back. I love you both, Robert, if you get this. I love you both, so much, forever. ~Joshua Leab and Mama Leab (Karen Leab). Eph. 3:17-21
