“ I was very fortunate to get to know Bro. Louis for a very short time. He faced so many obstacles and so many losses that almost seems too much for one person to have to bear. He lost his whole family, his children. He lost his family not once, but twice... Sounds like a modern day Job. Just when it seemed he would not have to be alone in his final years, he was. I would not have wanted to walk a mile in his shoes, but he walked with his head held high and a smile on his face. He finally made it. Fly high Bro. Louis!

“ I knew Bro. Louis my whole life, but I got to know him so much better when Darlene Baker, my best friend, started dating him and married him. I became much closer to him and got to know him better during that time.

They had such a short time together, but the love they had for each other was so obvious, and the joy they had was so strong it was contagious. I will truly miss my "friend-in-law".

“ One Sunday morning at Scottsboro Holiness Church, my husband (Skeeter) and I saw his sister - Darlene Baker. She introduced us to her new friend, Brother Louis Chance! A few months later, they were married in October 2014, and was so happy! Sadly, a short time later, they were told of Darlene's sickness, which took her life about 8 months later! During this time - our family knew the Lord had sent Louis into our lives. We saw the sincere heartfelt love, kindness, compassionate care Louis gave to Darlene! He was a great example, a strong believer and faithful Child of God! He had a beautiful smile, and a kind and caring nature! I am so thankful my daughter Jesi and I were able to visit him at the hospital a few days before the Lord called him home ! I loved him so much and was proud to call him my brother in law! “ I'd never met Bro Louis until he & Darlene started dating. The Lord sent him to her. They had such a short time together unfortunately but while she was so sick he took such good care of her. He loved her so much and when he died he was still wearing his wedding ring. That's the kind of man he was! He was a good , kind , loving & Godly man. He quickly became my friend and I loved him dearly he was my buddy . Sad for us but I believe he's got it made now.
