“ Mr. Gant was a kind gentleman. I enjoyed talking to him when we visited my Mother and all went out to eat. He tried new things at a Mexican restaurant and laughed saying he couldn't believe how good it was and he had missed out on eating that for many years. He was a delight to have at our family Thanksgiving celebration also. He was excited that my husband and I were Alabama football fans! He loved watching Roll Tide ball. He cried when we gave him a throw blanket and cap from the stadium campus store. May he rest in peace knowing he gave others a smile~ you could see the twinkle in his eyes.
