

Mabel Magaline Potter

November 8, 1938 - June 29, 2015

Mabel Magaline Potter, 77 of Scottsboro, left her earthly body for a higher frequency Monday morning June 29th. As an Air Force wife, mother, and seamstress extraordinaire, Mabel travelled the world before returning to settle in her native North Alabama home. Known to everyone as “GrannyWitch”, she leaves behind a legacy of understanding, laughter, love, and compassion. She is preceded in death by her husband: Finis E. Potter; daughter: Lynn Mays; and great-grandson: Tyler.

She is survived by her daughter: Brenda Potter and son: Bobby “Pete” Potter, grandchildren: Amber, Josh, John, Toby, and Eric; great-grandchildren: Jacob, Colton, Alyssa, Anniston, Elizabeth, Eric “Little E”, Cooper, and, Lexi. She was a beautiful and caring human that will be truly missed. Services are to be held privately.

Tribute Wall

“ Mabel Magaline Potter

October 05, 2023 at 01:26 AM

“ So many memories, too many to post on here and now they will have to last us for the rest of our lives. She fought so hard to get better and she deserves her rest. God bless you Mabel.

Marie Garrett - July 02, 2015 at 09:59 PM

“ Debi Jo purchased the Country Basket Blooms for the family of Mabel Magaline Potter.

Debi Jo - June 30, 2015 at 02:44 PM