

Mrs. Margaret Pearl Rednour Clark

September 14, 1944 - October 1, 2021

Mrs. Margaret Pearl Rednour Clark, 77, of Owens Crosss Roads, formerly of Scottsboro, AL departed this earth peacefully on October 1, 2021 after a valiant battle with pulmonary fibrosis. Margaret was born in Harlan, Kentucky on September 14, 1944 to Orbin and Martha Rednour.

She met and married the love of her life and they settled in Scottsboro in 1965. She worked in customer service at Compass Bank for more than 20 years, followed by several years volunteering at the Salvation Army. She was known and loved by many across Jackson County and beyond for her sweet demeanor, her feisty personality, and an ever-present contagious smile.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Michael Rednour; sister, Daisy (Junior) Norton, and her beloved husband Bobby Joe Clark Sr.

Margaret, a passionately proud and devoted mother, grandma ("G-ma") and great-grandma, leaves behind sons, Bobby Joe (Kristin) Clark Jr and Darrell Clark; grandsons, Tyler Clark, Dylan (Kristen) Clark, Brandon Clark, and Justin Clark, and great-grandson, Ledger Lee Clark. She is also survived by brothers, Jerry (June) and Robert Rednour; sisters, Debbie Rednour and Shannon Cox, and a large extended family and many friends that she loved dearly.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 10 am on Saturday, October 9, 2021 at the Scottsboro Funeral Home with Rev. Pete Hess officiating, and family and friends are invited to arrive at 9:00 a.m. for visitation and fellowship. Burial will follow at Pinehaven Memorial Gardens.

“ So sorry to hear about Margaret passing. I worked with her at Compass Bank and she taught me a lot about banking and about life. She is a precious soul and will always be in my heart. I am often saying "Margaret Clark taught me to....." The list is endless to the things Margaret taught me. You will be missed and loved always. Rest In Peace Margaret.
